Youth Sunday

Congratulations to Cole Ellertson and Peter Krien who received the church's two scholarships this past Sunday. Each will receive $1000 for his studies next fall.

High School seniors Cole Ellertson, Peter Krien, Katy Kruse, Ariel Lefkovits, David Lehmann, Joe Messineo and Lena Shove spoke at Sunday's service about their faith and gratitude to the church. Other members of the YPS led portions of the service.

Mr. Mustachio gathered many of the musicians in the group to perform on instruments for the prelude. The Joyful Noise, Cherubs and Carol choirs all sang. The YPS sang an anthem too: Somos El Barco by Lorre Wyatt. There was a flute trio by Kasey Filiater, Amy Paterson, and Hunter Woodworth. Kimberlee Augis played Mozart's Ave Verum on the viola accompanied by Mr. Mustachio on the piano. The Chapel Bellringers performed the traditional American hymn, Praise Him, Praise Him. To conclude the service, Lolly Kruse performed Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody on the piano.

Mrs. Lacey and Mrs. Travia presented our graduating seniors new Bibles to take with them in their next step in life.

We thank the young people for their inspiration and gifts to the church. Thanks also to Sherry Brabham, their YPS leader, to Maira Hernandez-Kinloch and Tyra Brown, leaders of the Joyful Noise and Cherub choirs, and to Mr. Mustachio for their good work on this service.

Here are the lyrics to the high schooler's anthem:

"The stream sings it to the river, the river sings it to the sea, the sea sings it to the boat that carries you and me. Somos el barco, somos el mar. Yo navego en ti, tu navegas en mi. We are the boat, we are the sea. I sail in you, you sail in me. Now, the boat we are sailing in was built by many hands, and the sea we are sailing on will touch every sand."
